WOUND PROVES FATAL

Member of Mercer County Board of Commissioners Succumbs to Bullet Wound in Head.

Charles R. Frysinger, of near Rockford, member of the Board of Commissioners of Mercer county, died last evening, at a hospital in Celina, the result of a wound in the head inflicted by the late R. B. Morrison, former surveyor of Mercer county, who, in an insane frenzy, fired two loads from a shotgun at the members of the Mercer County Board of Commissioners as they were leaving the court house, in Celina, about noon last Friday. One of the loads inflicted a serious wound on the upper part of Mr. Frysinger's head, one buckshot entering his brain, and shot from one charge striking Commissioner Fred Goette-moeller glancingly on the side of the head, but not producing a serious injury. Commissioner Daniel Moeller escaped injury. Afterward Morrison committed suicide, at his home, by firing a rifle bullet into his head, with the end of the gun barrel in his mouth.

Commissioner Frysinger, following the shooting, was removed to the hospital, his left side being paralyzed, and an heroic effort was made to save his life, but he gradually failed, his heart action becoming involved, with the result that he died. Mr. Frysinger was aged 65 years and was widely known in Mercer, Van Wert and other counties of this part of Ohio. His direct survivors are his wife, two sons, Homer and Lewis Frysinger, at home, one daughter, Mrs. Edward Fox, of Mendon, a sister, Mrs. Frances Chivington, of Rockford, and a niece, Mrs. Joseph Kregel, of Lima. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Celina. The remains will be laid at rest in the Pleasant Grove cemetery, Northwest of Rockford.

KIWANIS CLUB

Club Work of the Past Year Discussed at Inter-City Meeting With Celina Membership.

The Van Wert Kiwanis club and the Celina Kiwanis club held an inter-city meeting last night, in Van Wert. The session was especially noteworthy on the point of attendance. A very large number of Van Wert members were present and twenty-seven of twenty-eight members of Celina club were present. T. C. Wilkinson, Past Lieutenant Governor of the First Division of Kiwanis International in Ohio, presided. Verne Hosselman, of Lima, Lieutenant Governor of Division One of Kiwanis International in Ohio, was a guest and made brief remarks relative of the work of the Kiwanis club during the past and present years. Clarence E. Willard, of Lima, an entertainer, gave outstanding numbers on the program. Mr. Willard, who is known throughout the United States as "The Man Who Grows," gave several feats of contortion such as extending his arm fourteen inches longer than normal length, causing his neck to stretch two inches and causing his body to stretch six inches higher than his normal height. Mr. Willard also gave imitations of noises of trains, street cars, animals and birds. The program also included music numbers by Miss Jane Edwards, Fred Wollenhaupt and the Kiwanis Quartette. During the meeting the Kiwanis Treasure Chest, brought to this city by the Celina delegate, was turned over to the Van Wert club. In turn, this chest will be taken by the members of the Van Wert club to the inter-city meeting to be held next Monday night at Ottawa.

AMERICAN LEGION

National Commander Will Head Division of Inaugural Parade at Washington, Next Saturday.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says: Louis A. Johnson, national commander of the American Legion, has accepted the appointment as marshal of the third division of the inaugural parade in Washington, March 4. This division will include all veterans' and patriotic organizations. His arrangements call for an official staff and each department commander of the Legion has been contacted and requested to serve as a member of the staff, or to designate such a member from his department. It is expected that each staff man will have the department flag and colors in the Washington for the parade. The flags will be massed in the parade. In addition, all post colors for the parade will be massed in another section of the band. Several drum corps and divisions of the Legion have already signified their intention of taking appropriate positions with the divisions.

PERSONAL

Guests From Out-of-Town Being Entertained at Van Wert Homes - Notes of Travel.

Julius Friedly, of Convoys, was in town, this morning, on a business mission.

Miss Mary Ellen Bonnewitz, of South avenue, will go to Cincinnati tomorrow for a visit with friends.

Mrs. C. O. Brady has returned to her home at Goshen, Indiana, after being a guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Mosier, of South Walnut street, and other relatives and friends.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Surveyor of Adams County Named Superintendent in Charge of Highways—Street Talk.

J. B. Cox, of Alliance, known as the inventor of a rotary motor, expected to revolutionize power for airplanes, a trustee at the State Hospital for Criminal Insane, near Lima, walked away from the institution. It is believed he shaped a key to the lock of an exterior door. He left a note indicating intention to go West to complete the work on the invention of his rotary motor.

Ralph Roof, of Decatur, surveyor of Adams county, has been appointed county highway supervisor. Under a new law the county highway department is abolished and the supervision of road work will hereafter be in charge of the county surveyor, with the aid of a deputy supervisor in each township.

Clifford W. Sinf, of Fort Wayne, has resigned as superintendent of highways in Allen county. His resignation paves the way for the county commissioners to abolish the office, agreeable to the provisions of a new State law, and place the duties in charge of the county surveyor.

Twelve restaurant owners at Bellefontaine joined in a protest against the serving of food to other than players and team members, during the basketball tournament, by the high school cafeteria.

The funeral of Mrs. Peter Gillion, of Berne, who died of heart disease, will be held Wednesday afternoon. She was aged 79 years and is survived by her husband and eleven children.

FARM BUREAU

Van Wert County Farmers Will Meet at Court House to Discuss Problems.

A meeting for beginners in Farm Accounting will be held Thursday, March 2, at 8:00 p. m., in the court room, of the Court House, Van Wert. This meeting will be in charge of V. R. Phares, County Agent, and L. H. Barnes, Farm Management Specialist, Ohio State University, Columbus. Enrolment is free. The only cost is 14 cents for an account book. "Any business, farm or otherwise, which does not 'keep books' is like a clock without hands," says C. R. Arnold, Ohio's well known farm economist. "The need of the Ohio Farmer to know exactly where his money comes from and where it goes was never so great as now," continues Mr. Arnold, who believes that true efficiency on the farm is impossible without records.

A special meeting for farmers of Van Wert county, sponsored by the Van Wert County Farm Bureau, will be held Saturday evening, at 7:45 o'clock, at the Court House. Topics to be discussed will be "Our Mortgage," "Fifty Per Cent Reduction in Taxes," "Domestic Allotment Plan" and "Honest Dollar Legislation." It is planned to adjourn the meeting by 9:00 o'clock.

FRANKLIN HIGHWAY

At the meeting of business men from Van Wert, Putnam, Hancock and other Northwestern Ohio counties along with business men from Decatur, Huntington, Wabash and Markel, Indiana, held at Ottawa today to protest proposed change in the Benjamin Franklin Highway, unanimous and decided action was taken insisting that the old or present route be retained. The proposed change in the route of the highway would eliminate Van Wert and a number of Indiana cities from the highway, the new line being direct from Findlay or Ottawa to Fort Wayne.
